Grouya Named Aide to Glaser at Howard Manor

Songwriter-socialite Ted Grouya has been appointed assistant to Ernie Glaser, general manager of the Howard Manor, the hotel announced today.

In a joint announcement by co-owners Jack Dempsey and Dave Margolis, the hotel indicated that Grouya, whose accomplishments also include the musical comedy "From Cover to Cover," a Broadway hit in 1944-45, would assume the title of director of public relations for the hotel.

"THIS IS THE newest step in the enlargement and overall development program of the Howard Manor," Glaser said, following the announcement. He said that Grouya would aid in the promotion of "special events" in the Howard Manor.

In addition to the Champagne Night program which has proved successful each Thursday in the hotel, Grouya will take an active hand in such upcoming new promotions as a "songwriter's night," an aquacade, a "Southern hospitality" night and other events.

GROUYA IS BEST known as a songwriter, having penned such perennial hits as "Flamingo," "In My Arms," "I Heard You Cried Last Night," "When Am I Going to Kiss You Good Morning" and many others.

He has also been a music publisher and an account executive for a local radio station.

SPANKING LEGAL? ONE 'CITIZEN' HAD PERSONAL INTEREST

EL CENTRO — (UP) — Sheriff's Deputy Jess Thomas had this telephone conversation with a caller who asked information about the law, but wouldn't identify himself:

"Is there a law against spanking a child?" the caller asked. "It depends on how hard the spanking is," Thomas said. "Why?"

"I just want to know."

"You must have a reason. Why did you call?"

"I just got spanked."

Protestant Fund Raising Attacked

By LOUIS CASSELS

American Protestants, who have long scolded their Roman Catholic brethren for raising money through raffles and bingo games, have lately discovered a beam in their own eye.

They are getting concerned about the prevalence of "commercialism" in Protestant fund-raising activities.

THE CHRISTIAN Century Magazine, which is always pricking the Protestant conscience in its tattle spots, was one of first to raise the alarm.

"One need not travel far in American Protestantism," the Century declared in a recent editorial, "to find money-raising schemes that approximate the Roman Catholic Church's exploitation of games of chance, which we deplore and protest. "Thousands of Protestant church bazaars, carnivals and 'summer fairs' are slightly more respectable than Las Vegas,

"THE PRACTICE OF wringing 'advertising' dollars from merchants, particularly from those who are not members of the churches in question, to finance church bulletins and magazines and dedication folders is also ripe for reform. Let's call it what it is: Extortion."

The basic objection which many Protestants feel toward money-making projects — even such time-honored ones as church suppers and bake sales — is that they tend to become a substitute for generous voluntary giving by the congregation.

Board Takes Final College Site Action

Escrow Papers Signed for 40 Acres Last Night

PALM DESERT — Threats of legal action to halt a college site purchase failed to materialize last night as junior college trustees took the final step towards acquisition of land.

Coachella Valley Junior College District trustees happily signed escrow papers for the purchase of a 40-acre parcel adjacent to the 120-acre College of the Desert site.

Check Saturday's edition of The Desert Sun for a complete listing of school bus schedules — from kindergarten through high school.

And keep it for a handy reference during the first week of school so that you'll remember what time Johnny has to get up to reach the bus in time.

City May Seek Sunset Court As Parking Area

Paced with the loss of the Desert Inn as a municipal parking lot site, the city today focused its attention on a North Indian Avenue hotel for the solution to its downtown parking problem.

City Planning Commissioners yesterday recommended that the City Council move to acquire the Sunset Court at 241 North Indian as the site for a new municipal parking lot.

THE COMMISSION also recommended that the city investigate the possibility of acquiring property behind various buildings adjacent to the Sunset Court for additional parking space.

The unanimous commission action actually re-affirmed a year-old recommendation to acquire the Indian Avenue hotel, which was originally marked as the "first choice" for a municipal parking site.

"THIS IS OUR most critical area of parking deficiency downtown," explained Planning Director Hy Ranes. "It is now the most logical site for a city parking lot."

Ranes said the commission feels it may also be necessary to acquire the relatively unused rear portions of adjacent buildings facing Palm Canyon Drive to provide adequate parking facilities.

MAGAZINE DEVOTES SECTION TO 'LUSH' PALM SPRINGS LOOK

"The Lush Palm Springs Look" is highlighted in the current issue of Look Magazine, which for the first time in its publication history, has devoted an entire issue to a single state — California.

Told entirely with pictures — under the assumption that the Village is so well known throughout the nation that other identification is not needed — new luxury styles in women's clothes are depicted with typical Palm Springs settings.

Also pictured in the issue is an aerial photo of a date grove in the Coachella Valley, and a Mexican farm worker's experiences in the Imperial Valley.

U.N. Study Team Preps for Flight To Laos Front

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — (UP) — U. N. investigators studied reports on the Communist threat to Laos in secret today in preparation for their departure for the beleaguered Indochinese kingdom Saturday night.

Three members of the four-nation investigating committee created early Tuesday at a veto-sponsored session of the Security Council were closeted here for four hours Thursday night.

They will meet again today and Saturday, when they expect to confer with Laos' foreign minister Khampan Panya, before leaving for Laos.

Meanwhile, in New Delhi, Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said today the border dispute between India and Communist China was "very serious" but the two countries should be able to settle it themselves.

Paul Douglas, 52 Succumbs Today

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Film star Paul Douglas, 52, died today from a heart ailment, city firemen reported.

Firemen were called to the Douglas Hollywood Hills home by his actress-wife, Jan Sterling, 36, at 8:11 a. m. (p.d.). The rescue squad reported Douglas apparently was dead by the time they arrived.

Six Children Die in New Train Crash

Minnesota Mishap Follows on Heels Of Maryland Tragedy

United Press International Tragedy involving a train and school children struck for the second time in two days this morning as six children, five of them students at Sacred Heart Parochial School in Waseca, Minn., were killed in a car-train collision a half block from the school.

Only yesterday seven children were killed and 19 others injured at Oakland, Md., when the Biltmore and Ohio's plush passenger train — the Diplomat — slammed the rear of a disabled school bus on a grade crossing.

IN WASECA, The victims were all children of Mrs. James Zimmerman, about 30, who was driving the children to school.

She was the only survivor and was reported in critical condition at the Waseca Hospital. The dead were Jimmy, 4; Kathleen, 12; Michael, 10; Constance, 9; Barbara, 7, and Jan, 2.

Another school child, Robert Szyzka, 15, was hit by flying debris and injured as he was walking past the crossing.

The station wagon in which the family was riding was hit broadside by the locomotive of a Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad freight train. The station wagon was demolished.

IN OAKLAND, MD., today, residents still discussed the tragedy in hushed tones in supermarkets and stores, and townspeople prayed for the recovery of the 19 injured.

Maryland Gov. J. Millard Tawes awaited results of a full scale investigation by state police, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and the Roads Commission. He urged that responsibility "be determined precisely" to avoid a recurrence of the worst catastrophe that ever befell the community.

IN CHICAGO TODAY, the National Safety Council put the safety of the 11 million students who ride school buses squarely in the laps of bus drivers and the authorities who hire them, listing a three-point program to safeguard school bus passengers:

CONFERRING ON New York teen-age crime problem are Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, left, and Mayor Robert Wagner. New York City has appealed for aid from both state and federal authorities to combat the steadily increasing trouble.

NEW YORK SEEKS AID IN GANG FIGHT

NEW YORK — (UP) — New York City sought aid in Albany and Washington today in its seemingly hopeless battle against teen-age gangs. One gang chased an intended victim into a firehouse early today and threatened to shoot up the place when firemen intervened.

Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy frankly admitted that he can see "no reversal" in the steady rise in juvenile delinquency and crime unless the hand of law enforcement agencies is considerably strengthened.

TO ACCOMPLISH this, Mayor Robert F. Wagner and the city's district attorneys have drawn up a legislative program calling for drastic revision of state and federal laws covering interstate shipment, sale and possession of weapons, including switchblade knives, stiletos and sports starter pistols favored by teen-age warriors.

Wagner and his aides also will ask the federal government to assign more narcotics agents to New York to curb the flow of marijuana, heroin and cocaine to "jungle" neighborhoods which breed juvenile violence.

THE GANG CHASED a 13-year-old boy into a Brooklyn firehouse early today and were beating him up when firemen intervened. The youths threatened the firemen with two-by-four sticks of wood and said they were "going to go out and get a gun and shoot up the place."

Police picked them up later on a neighborhood street. They all were charged with disorderly conduct and one was charged with attempted assault.

'Yank, Go Home' Chant in Iceland

SINCE WAGNER ordered a crackdown Sept. 1 on teenage street loiterers, more than 45 Paisley-shirted, pompadour-punks have been arrested. The mayor began a series of hourly messages on city station WNYC Thursday reminding parents of their responsibility to know where their children are at all times.

Latest addition to the city's jammed juvenile detention facilities were six Puerto Rican youths ranging in age from 16 to 19, members of a Brooklyn gang called the Mau-Maus.

Had Criticized City Council On 'Red Tape'

Maintenance Man Who 'Couldn't Get Things Done' Returns

Palm Springs City Golf Course, already a verbal tag-of-war within the City Council, today returned course maintenance to the man who told the council less than three weeks ago that "red tape" was holding up completion of the course.

Gordon Wyckoff, greens superintendent of the golf course today said that he would withdraw his resignation from the job, tendered the council some three weeks ago.

AT THE TIME of his resignation Wyckoff appeared before the council at a conference session and told them that because of "city formalities" it was "difficult to get things done." As an instance he said that the course was invaded by moths and a fungus which — if not treated — would have ruined the fairways and greens within "a couple of days."

"Because of the red tape it would have taken several weeks to get the funds and make the purchase of the chemicals to correct fault," he said.

THE COUNCIL immediately directed City Manager Dan Wagner to set up a special petty cash fund to use for such emergencies but other accusations made against the city by Wyckoff were discounted by the council as the greens superintendent's fault and not that of the administration.

Wyckoff has said that he had trouble getting a new battery for some equipment that he had ordered — but the order had been placed with former Parks and Recreation Director Kaye Hall and had not been obtained.

During the past week a strong difference of opinion has registered between members of the council who believe that "not all is well" with the municipal links. Most of the controversy is over the council's new policy governing operation.

THE POLICY, passed by the council Tuesday night, can be found printed in full on Page 2 of today's Desert Sun. It included one rule on the use of carts and

Objections Voiced

Planners Okeh Subdivision Law

Several Palm Springs area contractors today expressed a growing fear that a new city subdivision ordinance may drive a large part of the home construction industry outside the city limits.

The ordinance, designed to upgrade resort housing development and end what has been termed "cookie-cutter" subdivisions, was approved by a 4-to-2 vote of the City Planning Commission yesterday.

BUT ONE PARTICULAR phase of the ordinance — the requirement for underground utilities — was questioned by contractors who feared that it might virtually eliminate low-cost housing from Palm Springs.

"The cost of installation for underground utilities might make land costs too high for the type of homes most local contractors can build," said Bill Brubaker, of Massey Construction Corp.

HOWEVER, NEITHER Brubaker nor other contractors questioned the ordinance because the estimated cost of underground electric wiring is "too problematical."

Reputedly fostered by the recommendations of City Councilwoman Ruth Hardy, the ordinance serves to upgrade subdivision development by requiring builders to install street trees, sidewalks and underground power lines.

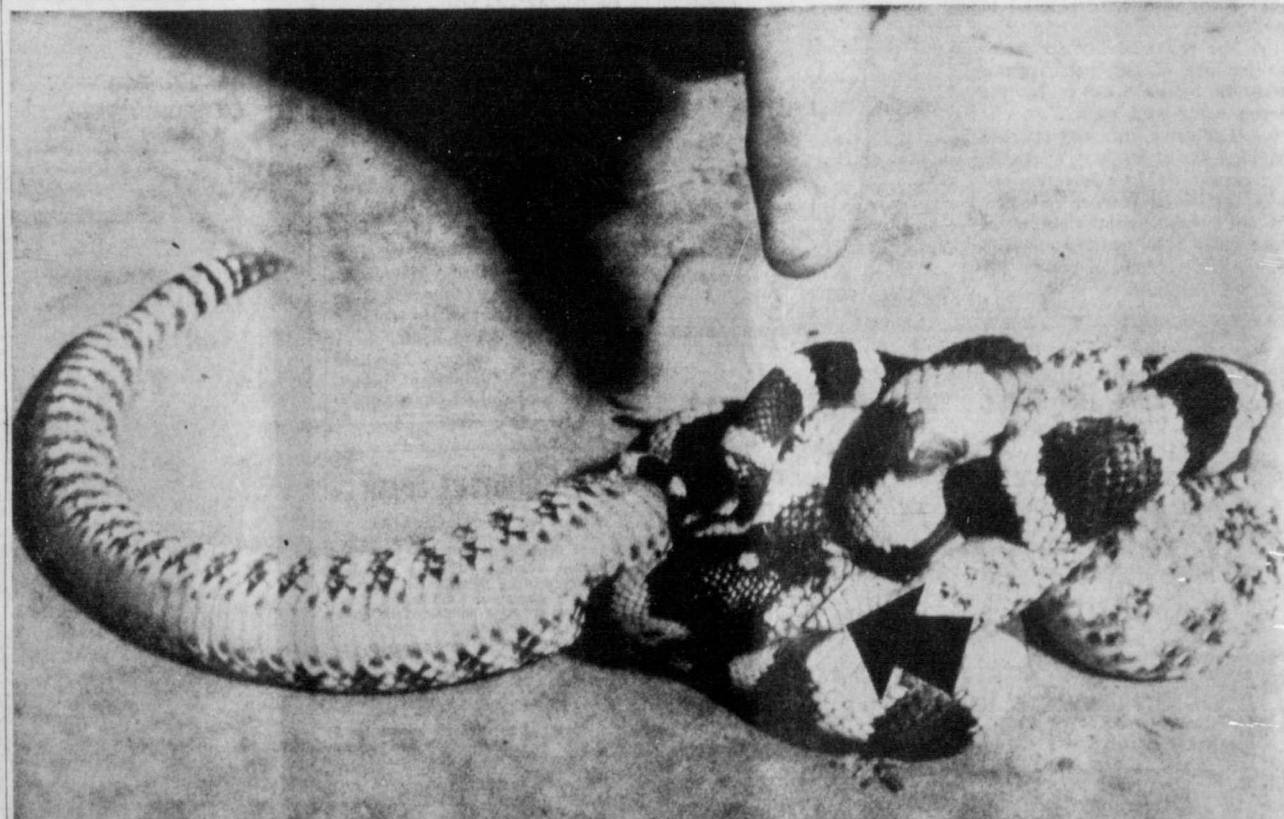

The ordinance is now subject to council approval.

Two planning commissioners — Realtors George Gannon and Lew Levy — voted against the ordinance, but stipulated that their objections were directed solely at the underground utilities provision.

BOTH AGREED with builders, who attended yesterday's commission session, that the cost of dropping power lines underground may elevate the cost of residential lots beyond the range of many builders and investors. The general contention appears to be that "underground utilities are fine for luxury-type developments, but not for low-cost housing."

IT'S DINNER TIME for one hungry snake and death for a second in this stark tableau of nature in the raw—but the question here appears to be who is eating whom? The finger and the arrow however, indicate the head of the diner, a "harmless" king snake which vanquished a deadly rattlesnake in a swift, silent battle in the back yard of the Snow Creek Village Market, north of Palm Springs, yesterday afternoon. The victorious king rendered its opponent immobile with its powerful, constricting coils and then proceeded to gorge itself on the still-living rattler. The pointing finger belongs to store owner Louie Kalchaf, who explained that the king snake is one of several "pets" he keeps around the market grounds "for protection." "I feed the king snakes milk and they kill all the rattlesnakes," pointing out that none of his kings has lost a battle yet. This particular battle started under Kalchaf's store. (Sun Photo).

"We have heard nothing further of Mr. Gogerty's proposed action," Dr. McCall said last night. "We have no idea of whether he plans to carry out his threat or not."

COURSE POLICY OUTLINED BY CITY

Palm Springs City Council this week adopted its first golf course operational policy.

As approved by the council, the policy reads:

ADVANCE RESERVATIONS

1. Advance reservations may be made as early as seven days in advance of requested time of play. Example: Monday for Monday.

(a) Reservations may be made in person or by telephone.

(b) Reservations may be made for two to four persons within a single foursome.

(c) Short foursomes shall be filled in by the starter.

(d) The person making the reservation must be a prospective player within the foursome.

(e) The responsibility of confirmation of date and starting time shall be that of the golfer.

(f) Tickets must be picked up on the day of reservation before the designated starting time or the starting time will be forfeited.

(g) No permanent reservations shall be allowed any persons, organizations, clubs or groups.

2. GROUP PLAY (TOURNAMENTS)

(a) Tournaments are permitted Monday through Friday, exclusive of holidays, at the discretion of the Golf Course manager. Such authorized tournaments shall not exceed two per week and no group may obtain such authorization in excess of one such tournament per calendar month. Authorization shall be granted on a "first come, first served" basis.

(b) No tournament group shall exceed 160 players or consist of less than twenty-four players.

(c) Tournaments may be allowed on Saturdays, Sundays and major holidays, provided the group agrees to starting after 12 noon, and limits number of players to minimum of 24 and maximum of 60.

(d) Tournament reservations must be made at least 15 days in advance and actual confirmation must be registered not less than eight days in advance. All such confirmations must be in writing in the name of the official organization requesting tournament play.

3. COURSE PLAY

(a) Play shall be restricted to foursomes.

(b) The responsibility and liability for use of any person as a caddy is assumed solely by the person using said caddy.

(c) Exclusive of any person provided for in Section (b) above, any person on the course must be a registered player. Any person on the course in violation of these rules shall assume the full responsibility and liability for their own welfare.

(d) Use of power-driven golf mobiles shall be restricted to such times as authorized by the greenskeeper.

(e) Each registered player must have adequate and sufficient golf equipment. Not more than one player shall play from one golf bag or caddy cart. The management reserves the right to refuse play to any disorderly person or persons.

4. GOLF CLUBS

(a) The City of Palm Springs will sponsor a golf club.

(b) The City of Palm Springs will not grant special privileges to any individual, group or club.

(c) Charges for the use of the Palm Springs Golf Course will be in accordance with fees and charges policy adopted by the City Council, City of Palm Springs.

golf bags which has been questioned by the public as well as the council.

Councilmembers Leonard Wolf, Mary Carlin and Frank Bogert, in an attempt to straighten out a "misunderstanding" said that the rule applied to only golf bags and small hand carts, and not to electric carts.

The rule says that only one person can use a bag or caddy cart, but electric carts are for two people, and two people can play from them, although each may use an individual golf bag.

BIGGEST VERBAL battle in the council is over the green fees that will be charged and the new municipal links. Councilman John Wood charged that the city would lose $40,000 a year on the course's operation.

Mrs. Carlin is not as bothered over the amount of the fees as she is over the fact that the administration keeps asking to "borrow" more funds from different city accounts in order to build and set up the course for play.

THE FEES, as outlined by Wagner, called for a cost of $3.50 for weekdays (Monday through Thursday), $5 for weekends (Friday through Sunday) and holidays. A book of tickets will be made up to sell for $30 for 10, which will save the buyer 50 cents for weekday play, and on weekends the player will present a ticket and $1.25 for play, thereby saving him 75 cents.

Mayor Frank Bogert and Councilman Wood would like to see the rates set at $5 for weekday play "even if special concessions are given local residents."

State Tax Structure Study Set

Legislative Group To Investigate Pay-As-You-Go

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A legislative committee has agreed to study adoption of a pay-as-you-go state personal income tax.

The Assembly-Senate Legislative Budget Committee will try to find out during the next two years if such a collection system is practical for California.

SEN. GEORGE Miller (D-Martinez), chairman of the interim committee, said previous studies had indicated such a system would not work in the state.

"It was rejected because it was impossible to work out a table of payment," Miller told the lawmakers. "There was no relationship between the amount of earnings and the amount of state tax paid."

However, Miller said it was possible there was some correlation now as a result of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's tax program, which raised personal taxes for the higher incomes.

ALSO TICKETED Thursday for study by the committee was a proposal to allow taxpayers to pay a percentage of their federal income tax for state tax.

PLANNERS

California Electric Power Co. here, said the cost would probably range from $300 to $1,200 per lot, depending upon the power requirements of the housing concerned.

IT WAS POINTED out that one builder, George Alexander, was able to incorporate underground utilities for slightly more than $300 per lot in one instance, but this was regarded by Crocker as "an isolated case" wherein a few homes required only minimum electrical power.

City Planning Director Hy Rames, however, introduced an article in the August issue of House and Home Magazine which reported that Midwest builders are using a "new method" of installation for underground utilities that reduced the per lot cost to $200 and even $100.

The commission asked Crocker to investigate the article and report at the first commission meeting in October.

MEANWHILE, representatives of the Coachella Valley Contractors Association, "speaking as individuals," said today that if costs are as high as stated by Crocker, much of the resort housing industry would be forced to move outside the city limits.

This, it was felt, would have a serious effect on the economy of Palm Springs, through loss of property tax revenue and through possible loss of investment money that may remain pocketed for expenditure elsewhere.

However, Rames said, while the new ordinance is generally universal, it is not "ironbound." Contractors will be able to seek variances in "hardship cases" — where terrain is too rocky for trenching or where a prospective development is ringed by others using surface utility poles.

Brown Says State Needs Revamping

Governor Says State Stretching at Seams, Asks Re-Evaluation

DAVIS (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today that California's state government was "stretching at the seams" and must be reorganized to meet demands of the future.

MEETING AT THE University of California campus, the governor and the officials discussed a citizens' committee recommendation to create eight super state agencies to supplant many of the 300 boards, commissions and agencies which now make up state government.

The report was prepared by a committee headed by Bert W. Levit, San Francisco attorney and former director of the Department of Finance.

THE LEVIT recommendation was expected to run into opposition from many agencies which would be abolished under the reorganization or whose functions would be absorbed by one of the eight new departments.

Anticipating the opposition, Brown said the Levit plan was only tentative and that he would reserve the final decision.

"Once I have made that decision," he said, "I will expect all of my official family to support me in it 100 per cent."

"I NEVER WANT feet dragging, and I want no conflicts between my departments that are not quickly resolved," he said.

"I want no smug satisfaction with present levels of service or present standards of economy — and I want no uncritical contentment with present accommodations of existing policy. I expect steady and visible progress during my administration."

THE GOVERNOR frankly admitted "inadequacies" in the state's present structure and said the fault rested in a state government that consisted of more than 300 agencies.

He said he had been hampered by the government organization itself in efforts to keep state government "responsive to the needs of the people."

Hotel Removal Planned for Business Use

The Winter Garden Hotel—one of Palm Springs' oldest downtown buildings, will be removed to make way for new, modern store buildings, as a result of City Council action this week.

On an application for a variance in the setback law, Albert Taucher and his son, Albert C. Taucher, asked that the council allow them to go back only 15 feet of the required 25 in order to have enough room to place the new buildings on the lot.

In a five to two vote — Mayor Frank Bogert and Councilman John Wood casting the dissenting votes — the council approved the variance.

Opposition to the setback was voiced at the Planning Commission meeting by Mrs. Pearl McManus, who pointed out that she was required to set back the full distance when she developed the new J. W. Robinson store on Palm Canyon Drive.

The hotel, which was started in 1922 and has served Palm Springs ever since, is located at 205 South Palm Canyon Drive.

Play School Plea Is Withdrawn

Palm Springs City Council this week acted to recognize and dismiss all proceedings concerning the application of Edith Ritter for a conditional use permit for a play school at 250 South Patencio Road.

Attorney Warren Slaughter was present at the meeting to withdraw the application, and told the council that Mrs. Ritter lost out in her bid for the property.

TEA WILL LAUNCH DEMO FUND DRIVE

Palm Springs area Democrats will kickoff their annual "Dollars for Democrats" campaign with an afternoon tea for organization women at Ocotillo Lodge Wednesday, Sept. 16.

Principal speakers for the tea are Virginia Strahan and Clifford Dean, co-chairmen of the county's Dollars for Democrats program, and Amy Croft, of Rancho Mirage, desert area campaign chairman.

Tea time is from 4 to 6 p.m. in the lodge dining room.

Following the tea, Palm Springs Area Democratic Club leaders and campaign precinct captains will organize to canvass resort Democrats to raise funds for party coffers.

Co-chairmen of the tea program are Mrs. Saul Ruskin, Mrs. Thurman Arnold Jr., Mrs. Arthur Greenfield and Mrs. Stanley Spiegelman.

Payment Okehed By City Council

An appropriation of $800 was approved by the City Council this week as payment to Lawrence Hughes for work he did on the Palm Springs Golf Course.

No reservations are required for the tea, but Democrats planning to attend were asked to call Mrs. Ruskin at FA 5-7305.

Building Permit Fees Increased By City Council

Palm Springs building permit fees were upped this week by the City Council in an urgency ordinance adopted by the City Council.

The fee increases will add $1 for any permit between $5,000 and $25,000.

Permit for a $30,000 job now costs $87, and under the new change will cost $90.50; a permit for a $75,000 project did cost $152, and now costs $178; a $100,000 project now costs $177, and will cost $215.50; and a $200,000 project costs $277, and will cost $315.

The passage of the emergency ordinance will make it an immediate law.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who thinks nothing of losing fifty dollars on a horse race but raises the roof when I order a three-dollar dinner in a cafe? That's my friend. I am 60 and he is 62. I've been widowed since 1938 and he lost his wife last year.

He invited me out to dinner and I suggested a nice place to eat. When we got there he looked at the menu and said he wasn't going to stay there and pay those kind of parties. We already had a cocktail so he paid the waitress for the drinks and I left the tip. He wanted to take me to a cheaper place (where can you get a dinner cheaper than $2.95 for pork chops?) but I asked him to take me home. I haven't seen him since. Should I call and apologize or forget about him?

DEAR HAZEL: Forget him. You're luck he showed his colors early in the game. How would you like to be MARRIED to a penny-pincher like this one?

DEAR ABBY: I have a sister who carries a rabbit's foot in her purse for luck. Once she couldn't find her purse and she wouldn't go out of the house until she found it.

Her luck has been anything but good lately. She lost her job and her husband found himself another woman.

She still thinks that rabbit's foot will bring her good luck. Can you say something in your column to change her mind?

DEAR WILLIE MAE: The rabbit's foot your sister carries was certainly bad luck for the rabbit.

This should settle it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO DOROTHY: Sorry. You came to your senses ten years and three children too late. When a woman gives herself to a man for nothing (not even a marriage certificate) he usually figures she is worth exactly what she cost him. Nothing. He can be forced by law to support his children. But no law in the land can compel him to live with you.

Jet Age Opens New Era of Personal Diplomacy By Leaders of Nations

Thanks to the full-fledged arrival of the jet age of travel, the world is witnessing the inauguration of an entirely new era of personalized, international diplomacy conducted on the spot by the individual leaders of nations.

President Eisenhower's whirlwind round of tete-a-tete talks with Allied leaders in Germany, France and England—all in a matter of hours—clearly points up the great changes which are taking place in direct discussions between the heads of government on matters of importance and timely urgency.

The forthcoming visit to the United States by Premier Khrushchev of Russia is another example of person to person considerations of world wide problems between nations and their leaders being made possible by swift travel over oceans and continents.

In the centuries which preceded, until less than one hundred years ago when horses and sailing ships were the "fastest" conventional means of travel, it would have been impossible for individual leaders of the various countries, other than the nearest of neighbors, to have taken the time away from their home duties to travel to the far continents to talk over matters with heads of government.

Compared to the horse and buggy days, jet travel has shrunken world distances to a matter of a day's drive or a few "miles" in any direction.

It is now an easy matter in both time and travel for national leaders to converse together in person whenever the occasion warrants, eliminating the necessity of sending representatives or less satisfactory written messages on any matters of moment where "give and take" talks can accomplish so much more.

With world leaders from the many nations getting to know each other much better personally through frequent visits together, and becoming thoroughly familiar with all phases of both "sides" of the common problems of each, there can be no question that the new method of direct handling of international matters face to face offers opportunities for reaching speedier and more satisfactory solutions in all such matters.

The great outpouring of people and warmth of greetings extended to President Eisenhower show that this new mode of personalized diplomacy also has great possibilities in increasing the popularity and prestige of America abroad.

Watch Out for This Man

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Never underestimate an enemy. We need to remember this wise maxim in the light of Nikita Khrushchev's coming visit. However much we disapprove of the man and his presence in the USA, it isn't enough to call him a bad guy, a butcher and a toss-pot. From excellent sources in Washington, it is now possible to make something close to an official estimate of Mr. K.

His self-confidence is supreme and is probably justified. For complete assurance it would be hard to match his willingness to come to a country where he is thoroughly hated — especially by the Labor Movement — bringing along his wife and family. It is something that Stalin never dared, nor Hitler, nor Mussolini.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS are of two minds when considering that a palace revolt in Moscow might unseat Mr. K. during his absence. Such an event would certainly be an embarrassment to Soviet Russia and World Communism. But our heavy thinkers in Washington would have to consider what sort of Russian leader might succeed Mr. K.

This was the problem which followed the muted struggle for power after Stalin's death. Had Beria instead of Malenkov seized control, we might have had World War III. It is now assumed that had we intervened in Hungary in 1956, as many of our firebrands desired, we might have cut off a hunk of the Soviet empire, but at the price of a general war. In sum, we would not necessarily benefit by a revolt in Russia. It is an educated guess that if American officialdom had a choice, it would be to keep Khrushchev in power. YET HE IS thought by the best observers to be the most dangerous enemy this country ever had, beside whom Hitler was a pipsqueak. Mr. K. has been in power in his country only a few years, but he has become to Russian common folk a familiar and beloved figure, beyond comparison with any other dictator.

The man is a grassroots figure, with the closest thing to the peasants' heart — agriculture. He has freed the farmer to a great extent from the hated collector of produce. He has made an unexpected success of his virgin lands project. Under Mr. K. the secret police have been at least theoretically replaced by local militia.

MR. K. IS ALSO the man who decentralized Soviet industry. Many communities and local managers in Russia have the feeling that they are independent of Kremlin collectivism. Mr. K. scored a great point with the workers when he decreed that only young people who had worked for two years, or served in the armed forces, should go on to higher education. This act restored the prestige of manual labor in that worker's country.

While he is about it, Khrushchev is also climbing upward in the estimation of the Russian intelligentsia. This is the reason for his including prominent authors and journalists in his 100-member American entourage. He has instilled in all Russian competitors, from debaters to chess players, a rah-rah spirit of winning every match for dear old Russia.

THIS IS THE man who comes to visit us, and this fact, that he has no following on this side should not feed our overconfidence. Mr. K. is down — and can only go one way in American approval. He has to go up. Mr. K. visited Britain a few years ago at a time when the Labor leaders were thought to be family pro-Russian, but the rank and file of British workers made him feel most unwelcome. He comes to the USA in an opposite position—already scorned by the leaders and members of the Labor Movement. Unless Mr. K. makes no impression at all — which is unlikely in a personality of his magnetism—the change could be in his favor. It is hard to see any benefit that could accrue to the USA from his visit.

MR. K. COMES at a time of unrest in the Caribbean where Communists apparently have taken a toehold on Cuba. It is impossible to anticipate what might happen in that direction. He comes at the beginning of our school sessions, a time which since 1964, have never been without some unpleasant incident. From the American viewpoint, he couldn't have picked a worse time to call.

No American official — say President Eisenhower or Secretary Herter — could go before the American people with the foregoing summary. But I am not without reason for thinking that, if they could and would, these are some of the things they might say. They would, I think, wrap up the lecture with the warning. Don't underestimate this enemy.

—Holmes Alexander

Soviets Want No Atoms for Chinese

High allied diplomats see behind Russia's stepped-up pressure for a nuclear test ban Moscow's growing anxiety to keep Red China out of the exclusive nuclear club.

There is good reason to believe that the Kremlin, despite its close alignment with the Peiping regime, has no desire to have China equipped with the atom bomb.

RED CHINA, PUSHING determinedly for world power status, is already giving Moscow more of a headache than Soviet leaders care to admit. A nuclear test ban, until recently under negotiation in Geneva between the Soviet, the United States and Britain, would not automatically bind other nations.

But, once such an accord were completed, it would in practice close the nuclear club.

SIGNIFICANTLY, Russia is already building up pressure on France to desist from her plan to explode her first atom bomb in the Sahara.

Red China, which has been vociferous in the past in endorsing Russia's call for a nuclear test ban, would find it difficult to go ahead once a test ban accord is reached.

Since no new power would thus be able to test atomic weapons without encountering strong opposition from world public opinion, no country could acquire them in future through its own efforts.

CHINA WOULD remain permanently dependent for the use of nuclear weapons on Russia's good will, which is what the Kremlin appears to be aiming at.

That Red China wants the atom bomb has been revealed by a few scanty official announcements in the past.

SIGNIFICANTLY, none of the references to atom weapons production has mentioned Russia's assistance. Western intelligence believes that, apart from the supply by the Soviet of atomic reactors, the Chinese have been left to their own devices in this crucial field.

Some suggestions have put forward 1960 as the possible date for the first Red Chinese nuclear atom bomb explosion. Hence, the Western diplomats believe Russia's pressure for a test ban this year to be the deadline.

'Soon As I Learn to Fly, You're Free'

This Side of The Sun By Phat

When it comes to doing things — They're done different in Palm Springs.

We don't do things a certain way here just because other cities do.

We are not conformists. By that, I do not mean that we are Beatniks. Neither are we squares.

BUT IN PALM SPRINGS, there is generally a switch.

For instance, in other cities you often read of some old building being torn down to make way for more parking lots.

Or, in driving around, you come to a scene where a maul is demolishing walls and leveling structures which have outlived their usefulness — and some which haven't — to provide additional places for automobiles to anchor.

IN PALM SPRINGS, however, instead of tearing down a building to lay out a parking lot, they tore out a parking lot to make way for a building.

But it was a good cause and the lost space will be made up. Across the street from The Desert Sun Office on Indian Avenue, where once people parked, there is now going up that handsome new Palm Springs Spa, another notable addition.

NEWS ITEM in The Desert Sun the other day detailed the end of the city's plans to acquire The Desert Inn property where it was proposed to erect an auditorium to handle conventions and to provide a big parking lot.

Wonder what that means to the proposal to link up the north and south ends of Belardo Road to give the city another north and south thoroughfare.

WITH THE GREAT growth of Palm Springs and the resultant big increase in traffic, another such street is needed. By the way, so is another crossing over Tahquitz Creek between Palm Canyon Drive and Sunrise Way.

And traffic signals at some of our busier intersections. With the rapid and accelerating expansion of the city, some of these items are overdue.

AND TOUCHING on this great growth, there is a lot more coming according to gossip heard in Los Angeles and even at Del Mar, while on summer vacation.

This gossip had to do with new projects here which involved the construction of an auditorium to handle conventions in conjunction with other developments. Seems like we're just beginning to grow.

AN INTERESTING news item gleaned from the wires of the United Press International this week was that San Francisco's new Candlestick baseball stadium may not be ready for the World's Series when — and if — the Giants win the National League pennant.

An Oakland man has filed suit claiming that he owns a big slice of the new plant's parking area. Oddly enough, the man who is suing Candlestick Park lists his occupation as "tallow maker."

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

We are up in the Elegant Eighties this morning, Hotel Stanhope, Fifth Avenue, New York City. You cannot beat an address like that.

Across the street is the great granite fortress of Art — the Metropolitan Museum. Did you know that museums have troubles with closet space? Even as you and I?

Museum directors are just like housewives. They are constantly looking for some place to store a few old mummies. Or King Tut's bathtub.

"CONSEQUENTLY," said the manager of the Stanhope, "we allow them to hang a few of their pictures here."

The Stanhope is one of those quiet hotels with a lot of permanent guests. When we come down in the lobby, we gaze on paintings labeled: "Unknown Flemish Painter, circa 1500."

MY MIDDOWN. Manhattan friends think I am pretty wild, living way up here. (Five minutes and 60 cents taxi ride from Grand Central.)

"You LIVING way up there at 81st?" they say. "That's pretty far out."

You know where they live? They live at Westport, Conn. An aching two hours commute ride on the train.

IF YOU DO NOT live in Connecticut, you live in Pennsylvania. This is another two hours commute. Each way.

New York commuters carry the time tables in their heads. "Lessee. If I get a cab on 51st. (Traffic should be about right.) Then I could make the 6:15."

HE MAKES THE 6:15 by running aboard just as it starts to move. This gives him two hours to sit in the club car and eat a scotch-and-sodas. Arriving home, gay and jovial. To get up at 6 in the morning to go back and do it all over again.

But take a taxi up to 81st? That is murder. "It's a nice place to visit. But I wouldn't want to live there."

says the visitor from out-of-town.

WELL, NOBODY does live here as near as I can make out. Not New Yorkers anyway. They live two hours away.

They live in Schizophrenia. "No place like New York," they say. "I wouldn't live anywhere else."

Then when they ask you to come out for dinner, you find they live a long train ride in Connecticut. I never visit New Yorkers. I really don't have time to get out to the house.

It is not only the ONLY place to live, it is the most important place to live.

NEW YORK SEEN AS MAJOR ATOM TARGET

That is a headline in the papers. Some patriotic New Yorker assures his fellow commuters that, come the mushroom cloud, boys, it will come here.

In fact, the New Yorker (from Connecticut) cannot imagine why anyone would drop a bomb ANYWHERE but at midtown. If do not think they would drop a bomb way up here on 81st. That is why I stay in the artistic hotel.

This is a great comfort to us who live in the hinterlands.

I HOPE ANYBODY with a bomb to drop realizes that the major, really IN, most gone, first-class target is right at 49th and Fifth Avenue.

Such a blast would wipe out 4,000 Madison Avenue advertising men, 200 sports writers, 100 bookie joints, the skating rink at Rockefeller Center and countless airline ticket offices.

In other words, it would paralyze us. And everybody left would have to go way, way out to 81st Street for the cocktail hour. And heaven only knows how we could get to Grand Central in time to get the 6:15 up to Westport.

EARL WILSON:

A Few Words by Earl Sr.

NEW YORK — Slugger came home the other night and told his mother, "I don't want to be called Slugger any more."

We weren't surprised, and yet

He's 16 and he's always been "Slugger." Nobody in our family has ever called him anything but "Slugger" or maybe "Slug."

I remember so clearly the day he got the name.

He was a "preemie," born three weeks early, weighing at birth a grand total of four pounds two ounces.

He spent three weeks in the incubator at Woman's Hospital during which he dropped a couple of ounces before he started fattening up.

So he was a thumping four pounds six ounces or thereabouts when he came home. At that time there was no need for any name for him since about all we called him were the usual unpronounceable endearments.

I had hated the idea of calling him Earl or Junior... I had decided if we had a son he should be called Erik.

The Beautiful Wife had agreed to this.

"On my bed of pain," she says, "I changed my mind. I told the hospital he was to be called 'Earl.'"

He was hardly a month old when we had a visit from a good friend, then a federal agent in New York, now in San Francisco, named George White.

He came to look at the baby—and being a bachelor he was nervous and (for once) at loss for words.

George was also rather stoutheaded around 250.

Looking at the baby and wondering how to get around the fact that this half a handful wasn't any great beauty, George said:

"Hi, Slugger!"

We laughed — and we adopted the name.

Only in school was he ever called Earl. His grandmother, the Gorgeous Mother-in-Law, and my own mother, always call him "Sluggie." I have written about "Sluggie" he has been on TV and radio as "Slugger" many times, and in the official rolls of ASCAP you will find a young composer listed as "Slugger Wilson." But now college is not far off...

One of his names is Patrick. I had always thought when he grew up that "Pat Wilson" would be a nice name.

"So what name do you want to be called if you give up Slugger?"

his mother asked him the other night. "Earl," he said. His mother thinks that's a compliment to me, but personally, I think he can spell Earl, and he can't spell Patrick.

Since he's not Earl, Jr., we have two Earls in the house, and we are up against the question that so many hundreds of thousands of families have had before.

"We will call you 'Big Earl' and him 'Little Earl,'" a friend was suggesting.

"Thanks for the idea," I said, "but it wouldn't work — Sluggers bigger than I am now... He'd have to be 'Big Earl' and I'd have to be 'Little Earl.'"

And "the Old Earl" doesn't seem to hit me right, somehow. Though I'd better face it, that I am.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL...

Errol Flynn and Pat Wynmore agreed on divorce terms, and she'll file soon... Marlon Brando's arid town incognito — wearing tie and white shirt... Frank Sinatra, Dinah Shore, Nat Cole, and others will make an album called "Some of Manny's Friends," proceeds to the Manny Sachs Foundation... Terry Moore and her groom, Stuart Cramer, were at the Harwyn...

Miss Nevada (a Miss America candidate) is passing out silver dollars in the local cafes.

Siri, the statuesque Swedish blonde showgirl, has a slipped disk, and explains, "I have two osteopaths on my back"... Jonathan Winters may work the Las Vegas Riviera after his current Dayton stint (first since his illness)...

George was also rather stoutheaded around 250.

Looking at the baby and wondering how to get around the fact that this half a handful wasn't any great beauty, George said:

"Hi, Slugger!"

We laughed — and we adopted the name.

MIKE CONNOLLY: Newest Hollywood Feud

NEWEST HOLLYWOOD FEUD. HOLLYWOOD — Newest feud in Hollywood is between Sophia Loren and Barbara Nichols.

It started at the start of their picture, "That Kind of Women." Period of the film is 1943. Director Sidney Lumet decided he would go all-out for World War gowns and pageboy bobs for the gals.

That's the way they started but after two reels were shot Sophia switched to strictly 1960 fashions and hair-do — and got away with it, since she's the picture's top-billed star. Barbara, the second femme lea d, was stuck with what she started with. I saw it with her. She cried through most of the unreeling — and NOT because it's a sad plot!

BOBBY DARIN read the rave reviews he received at the Cloister and crowed, "If I'm this great now, think how great I'll be when I'm Frank Sinatra's age!"

Anne Heywood, Bob Mitchum's leading lady in "A Terrible Beauty," will soon be the bride of the picture's producer, Ray Stross, 20 years her senior — as soon as he gets his divorce from Clare Cory-James.

Sir Michael Redgrave finished writing his first novel, "The Mountebank's Tale." It's about an actor who destroys another actor's career during his climb to the top of the profession, a subject Sir Michael and many an other actor knows well.

Moaned by an out-of-work actor: "So I took a job as a bill-collector. I had to — I couldn't pay 'em!"

ANNA MAGNANI is the main reason visitors aren't welcome on the set of "The Fugitive Kind," in which she co-stars with Marlon Brando. That's because she doesn't want the public to know she's using two scripts: one in her native Italian for "understanding" another in phonetic English for memorizing. Shucks, now the secret's out.

Anne Baxter bought an ocean-side home, near Will Rogers State Park, moved in before it was furnished, unpacked the gear brought back from Girl Scout camp by her daughter, Katrina Hodiak, and the two of them spent the first three nights "in residence" curled up in Katrina's sleeping bag outside under their sycamores.

We've got two more converts to California. Dred-in-the-wool

New Yorkers Carroll Baker and Jack Garfield, her producer-spouse, who swore they would never live anywhere else but Manhattan, took a year's lease on a house a couple of blocks from Fox.

NEW TITLE FOR Paramounts unimaginatively - titled "Bay of Naples" is "American, Go Home!" That's the Commie-inspired sign you see plastered all over Europe. The American in this case is Clark Gable and the one girl in Europe who doesn't want him to go home is played by his co-star, Sophia Loren.

Bill Goetz wants Jimmy Shigeta of the "Holiday in Japan" revue in Las Vegas for "Cry for Happy" at Columbia. Looks good too because whatever Bill wants Bill Goetz (ouch).

Red Skelton met a Hollywood starlet who's so phony she can't even say hello without choreography by Agnes DeMille.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Eleanor and Phil Pillsbury are paying Edd ("Kookie") Byrnes to bend over a hot stove for publicity at their Pillsbury Bakeoff in the Beverly Hilton Hotel Sept. 21-22, and I can see the headlines now: "Kookie Cooks!"

The first Paramount-TV pilot film officially okayed by Par boss Y. Frank Freeman is for a projected series to be called "Irving." The studio - financed shows will star Sid Krofft and his puppets. Significantly, this is the first plunge into television by the last major studio hold-out in Hollywood.

Errol Flynn on a local interview show: "Any man who dies with more than $1.05 in the bank is an idiot." You hear that, J. Paul Getty?

Definition of a Sugar Daddy: A guy who dishes out a lot of sweet stuff to his li'l honey and winds up paying a lump sum.

ROSALIND RUSSELL flew to New York to rehearse for her Ford special. This is significant too, because it's Roz's first plane trip in 18 years, and a jet flight at that.

Steve Parker, Shirley MacLaine's husband, has made 22 round trip flights to Las Vegas in the past month to check up on how his fabulous "Holiday in Japan" revue is doing at the New Frontier. It'll be on TV too, of course, and it's making the Parkers very, very rich.

Silent screen star Francis X. Bushman, now 76, signed to play a 76-year-old trapeze artist in a Dovie Gillis segment at Fox-TV.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford
Phone FA 5-5005

Tonight as the Ranch Club opens its Corral Room . . . the annual fall phenomena of openings starts . . . It's the exciting season when popular Village spots that have been closed during the summer months . . . re-open . . . and returnees turn out to see and be seen . . . A week from tonight The Ranch Club opens its diningroom . . . and the new Ramon Road Branch of Security First National holds an invitational unveiling of the magnificent Lawrence Tenney Stevens sculpture of Palm Springs life . . . That's the day, too . . . that Town and Country restaurant in The Center opens its doors . . . and The Dunes has set September 24th for its gala opening . . .

Back in the Village . . . tanned and happy looking . . . is Mary Hurrell who goes north to her former home of Vancouver each summer . . . but always manages to get home again in plenty of time for all the openings . . .

In Vancouver she visited her son John Newell and his family . . . She was a guest of Bill and Eve Brooks on their new $300,000 yacht, DeAnza III . . . and went cruising through the British Columbia Islands . . . "Nice and cool" Mary says of British Columbia . . . but she looks the same way in her white shirt and shorts that accent her blonde hair and tan . . .

Gayle (Mrs. Herbert) Burns was on the Red Sea on her way to Cairo when she wrote . . . She said there aren't many tourists in the Middle East . . . but she had seen the Tom Hollands in Hong Kong and the Glenn Watsons in Singapore . . .

Gayle said they were going to stay at Shepherds in Cairo and would see the late show at the Hilton . . . and that they were wearing camel riding clothes a la Auntie Mame as the group was going out to the pyramids that afternoon . . .

She said the Red Sea was smooth as glass . . . and that traveling by the American President Lines is wonderful . . . with the ship a haven after a day of hectic sight-seeing and shopping ashore . . .

Party Fetes Birthday of Pamela Koops

CATHEDRAL CITY—The eighth birthday of Pamela Koops, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Koops, was celebrated at her home on Van Fleet. "Happy Birthday" cake and ice cream highlighted the late afternoon turkey dinner that followed games and the excitement of opening gifts.

Wishing happy birthday to Pamela were: Loretta Deason, Belinda and Sheri Morehouse, Darleen Schmidt, Mike and Pat Colglazier. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Koops honored Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmidt (Mr. Koops and Mr. Schmidt are cousins) with a family dinner in celebration of their 24th wedding anniversary.

Herb is headquartering at the Jonathan Club in Los Angeles while Gayle is away . . . and says he expects to be the worst dressed man in Palm Springs . . . if he wears all the things his wife is sending home to him . . . Oh, well, there are lots of costume parties, Herb . . . just adapt them . . .

This weekend Madelyn and Dick Bagdasarian and daughter Judy head north for Stockton . . . where Judy is entering the College of the Pacific . . . A member of this year's graduating class at Palm Springs High School . . . Judy is delighted with her new school . . . its beautiful campus . . . and its traditions . . . as California's oldest college . . .

The Bagdasarians spent the summer in California . . . visiting relatives and friends in Sacramento and Fresno . . . In San Francisco they visited with the Harry Hills . . .

Joe Calwell . . . Ranch Golf Club pro . . . has the Club's course in magnificent shape . . . and is in an eager beaver mood since his month's vacation in Honolulu . . .

Saw Bud Graves on Indian Avenue the other noontime . . . and called the house to say "hi" . . . He and Vie have an apartment in Brentwood and were just down for the day to look after their San Lorenzo Road home . . . Bud's been continuing his art classes in Los Angeles and Beverly Hills this summer . . . and they won't be back here to stay until October 20 . . .

Bob and Virginia Backstrom and daughter Deedee returned about a week ago from a High Sierras outing up back of Bridgeport . . .

Theresa and Arthur Press found themselves heading for San Diego so frequently this summer . . . that they took a furnished apartment there in the Mission Bay area . . . and have scarcely been back since . . . They managed a fishing trip above Bishop . . . and a few other excursions but didn't get too far from home this summer . . .

Lloyd Frank is off the critical list . . . but still in Portland General Hospital and Clinic . . . and the Franks won't be home before October . . . Orph is staying at 901 S.W. King Avenue, Penthouse D, Portland, Oregon . . .

Alchians Home from Trip North

The Vahan Alchians and their two children, Sherry and Tina, have returned to their home on Araby Drive after a five week vacation trip to Northern California.

Twelve days were spent in San Francisco visiting friends and showing the children around, before motoring through the redwoods to Sacramento. In Sacramento they visited former Villagers Peggy Randall and her son, Jim, and also visited with the Sam Gordons who are winter residents in Palm Springs.

School beckons the girls next week; Sherry will return to Ca-hulla where she enters the fifth grade, and Tina enters kindergarten.

Beebes Return Home from Lengthy Trip

Dr. Milford H. Beebe and wife Hazle have been on a round of parties since they returned from a 6,000-mile trip that kept them away from home for seven weeks.

The Beebes and their two children, Mary and Gary, visited nine National Parks in 11 Western states, and wound up their sight-seeing by touring the Hearst Castle in San Simeon.

Dr. Beebe spent the first week of August at the Annual Seminar of The Spears Chiropractic Hospital where over a hundred doctors from all over the United States studied the examination and treatment methods of this 800-bed drugless hospital. Dr. Beebe is the designer and Patentee of Dr. Beebe's Sacroiliac Brace used in severe lower backache cases.

Saturday night saw them at Chi Chi watching "Kiss Me Kate" and Sunday night they entertained at a poolside cocktail and dinner party in the patio of their home on San Jacinto Way.

Among their guests were Mrs. Arthur Gunderson of Tacoma, Mrs. Bertha DeVaux of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Henry Cherry, who entertained them the following evening at her home on Vista Grande.

Darwins Back From Laguna

The W. A. Darwins and daughter, Pat, have returned to their home in Palm Springs after a vacation spent in Laguna Beach.

Pat returns soon to San Marino Hall School for Girls in Pasadena, where she will enter the eighth grade.

ONE OF THE MOST-photographed sights in Japan is the lovely shrine island of Miyajima, some twenty miles from Hiroshima. Built out over the edge of the sea, the crimson shrine buildings actually seem to float on the water at high tide. The huge camphorwood torii, just offshore, serves as a gateway through which truly devout pilgrims pass in a sacred boat when approaching the shrine. Another memorable feature of Miyajima is the fantastic baugaku dance performed there by masked Shinto priests wearing brilliant silk robes.

The Desert Sun 7

NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION is this new own-your-own apartment project in Palm Desert. This artist's sketch shows the layout for the first 27 units of an 81-apartment development valued at $1,600,000. Designed by Harold Bissner, of Palm Desert, the first 27 units are scheduled for completion by the end of the year. Work is expected to start next year on the second division. The apartment units encircle a large recreational area, featuring a mammoth swimming pool, putting green and shuffleboard courts.

Gardening in the Desert

With the possible exception of trimming, watering, and occasional feeding as necessary, many an amateur gardener pays little attention to mature trees. We desert residents are fortunate in not having to cope with the many diseases that attack trees in other parts of our state.

However we are not entirely without some tree troubles; many a mature, decorative tree has been dying slowly for lack of close scrutiny, unless the cancerous part is discovered in time what was a graceful tree withers and dies; with timely necessary treatment it could have recovered.

TREES SHOULD BE closely scrutinized periodically. If inwardly rotting sections show up, if the life-giving sap begins to leak through the bark and you cannot diagnose the trouble, call in a tree surgeon. Avoid door-to-door solicitors who make wild claims as to their own workmanship or the use of miraculous chemicals.

We have listened to one discussing fictitious diseases and warning a customer that the disease will spread to all their trees. Annual inspection of garden plants are carried out by competent, reliable employees of our state's Agricultural Department. Men who, once a year, closely scan every plant or tree that grows in our gardens. If they deem it necessary they order the destruction by burning of any infected tree.

If they find an infected tree, a tree that is not infected by any of the dangerous insects that both Federal and State are anxious to entirely eliminate, those men will probably give you advice on saving the tree.

IF YOU ARE TROUBLED by a tree that has heart-rot fungus, caused probably by mechanical injury, deadwood spots or pruning wounds the same men might tell you how to handle it. In these Do-It-Yourself days you should use a hammer and chisel to cut out all deadwood before disinfecting and providing the necessary protective covering. When the dead wood has been chiseled out cut into the good bark so that the treated area has a sharp point above and below. When this is completed a mercuric fungicide should be applied to the treated part.

On the market or in any reliable nursery — we have some in our town — you can purchase a water proof, elastic tree paint which should be applied on the third or fourth day after the surgery. You may consider this treatment rather difficult and complicated but, when you have tackled and completed the chore, you will feel satisfied and you will have the tree and some money. If you have cut off a limb or branch do not leave a stub but cut it flush with the bark.

If you are cutting branches off any of your trees, to trim or bring them down in height or spread, keep that waterproof elastic tree paint on hand. To be safe, paint any and all cuts from one inch upward to prevent the life-giving sap from leaking out thereby weakening the trees propensities.

DISEASES IN TREES, diseases that weaken or deaden the appearance of its limbs and leaves, may be suffering from a source that cannot be found above ground. These are slightly more difficult to handle. Maybe there is some killing chemical in the ground below, there might possibly be a solid deterrent preventing possible spread of the trees roots, maybe regular irrigation has been neglected.

If the latter is not the cause you should take your shovel in hand and dig until you find the reason for the root system not delivering the necessary life-giving food to the trunk above. —TGM

Permits on Early Work in Village To Stop Sept. 15

City Building Inspector Jack Sanders announced today that early work permits for contractors would be stopped on Sept. 15, as is the regular policy at the start of the winter season.

Work hours will be permitted only between the hours of 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sanders reported that "very few" permits were issued for earlier work starts this year, mainly because most new construction this summer was in the midst of residential districts.

Each year the City Council gives the Building Department permission to allow work to start before 8 a. m. Most of the permits are given to cement firms to allow pouring before it gets too warm.

Stone works for the Wallerstein Co. of Staten Island, N.Y., which produces the beer for the express purpose of testing it for such qualities as chillproofing, stability, taste, shelf life, and so on.

SAND AND SHADOW WORK UNDER WAY

Special to The Desert Sun PALM DESERT — Work is now under way on the first section of a new $1,600,000 own-your-own apartment project in Palm Desert.

Architect Harold J. Bissner, of Palm Desert, said ground has been cleared for the construction of 27 new apartment units in the first phase of an 81-apartment project.

THE DEVELOPMENT is owned by Neil Davis, of Pasadena, who is vice president of the California Lending League.

Located off the Palms to Pines Highway (Highway 74) at Shadow

Mountain Drive, the first 27 units are valued at about $160,000 and are scheduled for occupancy by the first of the year.

Styled in contemporary-modern, the apartment units will encircle a large, community-type swimming pool and recreation and garden area.

BISSNER SAID the apartments will be either one bedroom and den or bedroom-den combinations. Each has two baths, large living room area, kitchen built-ins, including a refrigerator, a breakfast bar, private patio, terrace and a cabana. Every apartment boasts 1,100 square feet of living space. Recreational features include the swimming pool, a putting green and shuffleboard courts.

All apartment units are of pitched-roof design with carports and spacious outdoor storage closets, Bissner added.

OTHER BUILDING features include three - inch cormex all-weather insulation and refrigerated air conditioning for each unit.

Bissner said building plans call for a total of 81 apartments in the $20,000 price class. Work will start on the second unit next year.

Slum Prevention

CHICAGO (UPI) — American cities are putting new emphasis on slum prevention, according to the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials.

The association reported that six times as many cities have housing codes in force now as four years ago. It said at least 260 cities now have laws setting minimum requirements for safety and health in housing, compared with 44 cities four years ago.

FHA Insures 3.3 Per Cent Of Mortgages

Los Angeles Office Reports Activity in Riverside County

In the Los Angeles - Long Beach - San Bernardino - Riverside and Santa Barbara metropolitan areas alone last year the Federal Housing Administration insured 3.3 per cent of all FHA home mortgages in the United States, according to Captain Norman M. Lyon, FHA director for Los Angeles insuring offices, which includes those areas.

Director Lyon reported that the average new home in these areas financed with an FHA-insured mortgage in 1958 had an area of 1296 square feet, exclusive of garage and finished attic spaces, and contained 5.6 rooms, including 3.3 bedrooms.

ABOUT 99.8 PER cent of the properties had garage facilities of some kind.

Captain Lyon explained that the averages he cited applied to newly built owner-occupied homes financed with mortgages insured by the FHA under the provisions of Section 203 of the National Housing Act.

THE AVERAGE owner, whose monthly income was $713.84, obtained a mortgage loan of $14,243 repayable in monthly installments over a term averaging 28 years. The monthly mortgage payment to principal, interest, taxes, and insurance averaged $109.80.

This amount, plus estimated maintenance costs and regular operating expenses such as water, gas, electricity, and fuel, brought the owner's total prospective housing expense to $132.29, or 18.5 per cent of his monthly income.

Saund Votes For Federal Health Benefits

Special to The Desert Sun WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman D. S. Saund was one of 381 Congressmen to cast ballots for approval of the new Federal Employees Health Benefits Act of 1959.

Only four members of the House of Representatives voted against the act which provides for the establishment of a health benefits program for two million federal employees.

Congressman Saund reported that the bill has returned to the Senate for action on House-sponsored amendments. It was passed by the Senate Aug. 24. If it is signed by the President, the bill takes effect July 1, 1960.

Braves, Dodgers Close Gap in NL Flag Chase

Bucs Cut S.F. Lead To Two

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
The Giants are getting it from both barrels now and if the Dodgers and Braves keep firing away, there's liable to be a pall instead of a pennant in San Francisco. Everything went wrong for the Giants Thursday.

First, they blew a 5-3 decision to the Pirates and then they saw their National League lead shrink to two games when the Dodgers blanked the Phillies, 5-0, and the Braves beat the Cardinals, 7-4.

The victories by Los Angeles and Milwaukee kept them tied for second place and keep them coming straight at San Francisco.

ROGER CRAIG pitched the Dodgers to their third straight victory with a three-hitter that gave them an 11-1 home sweep

DOWN THE STRETCH

NATIONAL LEAGUE		W	L	Pct.	GB	CL
San Francisco	78	61	561	—	15
Los Angeles	76	63	547	2	15
Milwaukee	76	63	547	2	15
AMERICAN LEAGUE		W	L	Pct.	GB	CL
Chicago	87	55	621	—	14
Cleveland	82	57	590	4 1/2	15

against the Phillies this season. Hank Aaron paced the Braves to their fifth straight triumph when he doubled home three runs in a four-run seventh inning rally that overcame a 4-3 Cardinal lead.

Two homers by Willie Mays plus another by Willie Kirkland staked Giant southpaw Johnny Antonelli to a 3-1 lead over the Pirates after six innings, but he couldn't hold it. The Pirates rallied for four runs in the seventh which was highlighted by Roberto Clemente's two-run single.

The Cubs split a doubleheader with the Reds, taking the nightcap, 6-3, after Cincinnati won the opener, 10-4.

IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE, the last-place Senators slapped down the first-place White Sox, 8-2; the Orioles snapped the Indians' six-game winning streak, 6-1; the Yankees massacred the nose-diving Athletics, 12-1, and the Red Sox beat the Tigers, 7-3.

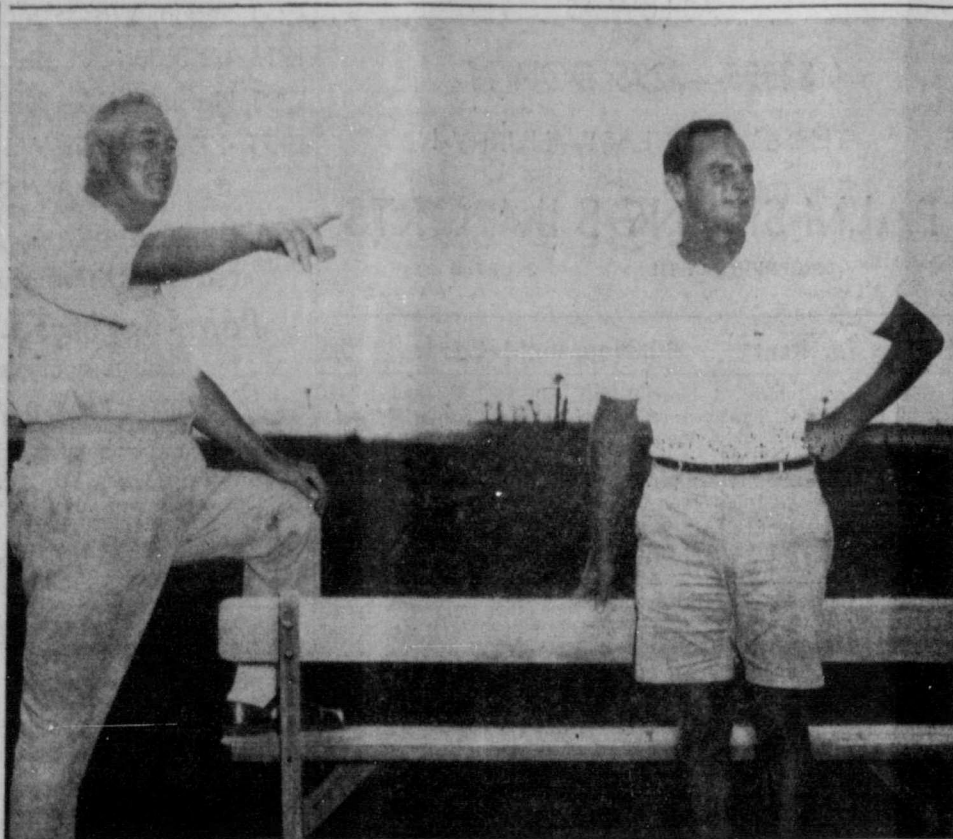

Washington's victory over Chicago was a labor of love. Prior to Thursday night, the White Sox had licked the Senators 11 straight times but Camilo Pascual put a stop to that by striking out 10 and pitching a four-hitter.

Despite the loss, the White Sox retained their 4 1/2 game lead and reduced their pennant-winning "magic number" to 11 when the second-place Indians lost to the Orioles.

KNUCKLEBALLER Hoyt Wilhelm limited the Tribe to three hits and fanned 10 in bringing his season record to 14-11.

Mickey Mantle and Ralph Terry had themselves a field day in the Yankees' romp over the Athletics, who lost their 13th in a row. Mantle led a 20-hit attack with five hits, including his 28th homer, while Terry had a one-hitter until the ninth and then wound up with a four-hitter.

Gene Stephens and Pete Runnels drove in three runs apiece in Boston's win over Detroit.

RANCH CLUB GOLF COURSE professional Joe Calwell and manager John Bennett look over their course just before winter play begins. The two men said today that there has been heavy play on the course during the past two weeks, and have announced that they would like to have "all their friends out to play on the course." Play was permitted on the course during the summer, and after considerable work on the fairways and greens, it is now ready for winter guests.

Crack at Welter Crown Prize in TV Bout Tonight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Mexico's Gaspar Ortega and Cuba's Florentino Fernandez wage a 10-round, nationally-televised welterweight boxing match tonight with a possible title shot riding on the outcome.

Miami Beach promoter Chris Dundee has offered welterweight champion Don Jordan $50,000 to defend here Dec. 4 against the winner of tonight's bout. Dundee already has the television date assured and is waiting the decision from Don Neseth, Jordan's manager.

Ortega, fourth-ranked contender from Mexico, Mexico, has a wide experience edge over Fernandez, who is ranked 10th. Ortega has fought 66 times, compiling a 50-14-2 record which includes wins over former champions Kid Gavilan and Tony DeMarco.

Fernandez, the same age as Ortega, 23, has only 20 professional fights behind him but has won 18 of them by knockout. The Santiago, Cuba, fighter has kayoed his last 15 opponents. He stopped Stephen Redl in seven rounds at Madison Square Garden two months ago in his first American fight.

TOP COACH DISCUSSES FOOTBALL

DIETZEL OUTLINES BENEFIT TO YOUTH

This is the first of a series of dispatches written for United Press International by Paul Dietzel of Louisiana State University, the 1958 college football coach of the year. Other dispatches will follow throughout the football season.

By PAUL DIETZEL
Written for the UPI
BATON ROUGE, La. — (UPI) — This series of dispatches will be an entirely new venture for me. The idea of writing a newspaper series is something that had never occurred to me. However, if I am to discuss football then I think it only fitting and proper to explain the position coaches take on the subject of football. Why play football, anyway?

Perhaps it is very strange for a coach to even mention the question "why play football?" However, inasmuch as this happens to be a coach's means of making a living, I think that he should be in a position and be prepared to answer this question.

Personally, it is very simple for me to answer this question. Football is the reason that I was able to secure a college education in the first place. Football is the only reason that I ever dreamed of going to college and it is the one thing that has given me anything that I have achieved, however small or large it may be.

DURING MY CAREER in the coaching ranks, I have had the opportunity to travel about the country to visit in homes of many prospective athletes. Through this particular media, many young men have been afforded an opportunity to secure an education. These same young men might never have had an opportunity to get an education were it not for athletics.

It is an old idea, of course, that existence in any field should be rewarded, be it athletics, music, English, or physics. Perhaps I can best explain what I mean by attempting to elaborate on what I think are the most prominent reasons for big time college football in these United States.

The mere fact that football is one of the few real two-listed contact sports that we still have left in this country is, of course, a very good reason for continuing the game.

BUT EVEN A BIGGER reason for our concern is that we provide an emotional outlet by enabling a boy to partake in athletics rather than the hot rod, tavern type life. My own thinking has perhaps been colored by the fact that I have always personally felt that it was a challenge for a boy to determine whether he had enough courage to be an athlete.

On an athletic field each person is judged on personal merit rather than on whether the pocket book or social prestige of his family places him at some particular notch. On the football field, everyone is broke. It is perhaps one of the best tests of personal ability that we have.

All of us have heard a mother say that she was afraid to have her son take part in athletics because she felt that there was a possibility that he might be bruised or perhaps even suffer a broken bone. This brute that he might receive is, of course, one of the risks that he takes any time that he takes part in a contact sport.

I WOULD HASTEN to remind that same mother that her son has a greater chance of getting injured driving the family car. Statistics will prove that in the 15-25 year age group, automobile accidents lead the statistics by hundreds to one over football fatalities. The bruises that he will receive can be painful and very real.

Given enough free unsupervised time, he will find a problem or create one. Our reform schools are filled with young men who received their training in a tavern. Perhaps this is the "polly-anna" type of idea. That may be.

Futurity Ends Race Season At Del Mar

Eleven 2-Year-Olds Seek Top Prize in Final Rich Stakes

DEL MAR (UPI) — A well-balanced field of 11 2-year-olds was entered for tomorrow's 12th running of the $88,720 Del Mar Futurity, closing day feature of the late-summer meeting here and one of the top juvenile races in the country.

The field was headed by Noble Noor and Warfare, which share top weight of 119 pounds. Noble Noor in July scored a half-length victory over Tompion in the $100,000 Hollywood Juvenile Championship.

Warfare scored his initial stakes win in the Charles S. Howard Stakes at Hollywood Park and defeated Noble Noor in his last start, winning in the excellent time of 1:09 3/5.

THE REST OF the field was made up of Mucho Mucho, Bright Tiny, Azure's Orphan, Eagle Admiral, U m b o, Pierica, Nobilium and Nos-Best.

The race was on 2-year-olds on today's program as well as with the Futurity Saturday. The featured seventh race drew 10 juveniles which did not measure up to the class of the Futurity field. They include such speedsters as Mirtaugh, Perceptra, Shimmy, Bogo, Clown Prince, Plush Horse, Drop Volley, Flash Action, Lew Posta and Bar Admiral.

Field Day won Thursday's $4,000 Del Mar Rotary Club Purse by covering six furlongs in 1:10 1/5. Ernie Rullah finished second and Rose Pale was third. The payoff was $18.40.

Snead to Captain U.S. Ryder Team

Veteran of Six International Golf Matches Honored

Sam Snead, veteran of six Ryder Cup matches and long-famed in big time tournaments, will lead the United States Ryder Cup team against Great Britain when the international team contest is staged at Eldorado Country Club November 7 and 8.

Snead has appeared in major tournaments in the Palm Springs area many times and is familiar with the local course.

Snead was elected captain of the 1959 team by the other members at Dallas, Texas, this week.

Snead first appeared on the United States Ryder Cup team in 1937 and he has played in five Cup matches since.

The team which will play here in November was chosen earlier this week at Dallas by the PGA committee and the team members later elected Snead.

On the team will be Julius Boros, Jack Burke Jr., Dow Finsterwald, Doug Ford, Jay Hebert, Cary Middlecoff, Bob Rosburg, Mike Souchak, Art Wall and Snead.

SAM SNEAD

Travel details for the members of the team to Eldorado Country Club were discussed at Dallas as well as fittings for team jackets.

Sharp Field Tees Off in Dallas Open

Snead Faces Tough Opposition in Quest Of Third Victory

DALLAS, Tex. (UPI)—Sam Snead took out after his third straight Dallas Open golf tournament crown today against one of the sharpest fields of the summer tour.

The West Virginia slammer, who pocketed $11,500 for his two previous trips to this event, will be playing over the same course where a year ago he pulled into a four-way tie on the final round and won the title on the first extra hole.

A YEAR BEFORE that the long-hitting Snead had fashioned himself a 60 on one round and won by 10 strokes, but it was over another and shorter course.

And, the makeup of this year's tourney site, the Oak Cliff Country Club, has been altered considerably since Snead, Julius Boros, Gary Player and young John McMullin tied an eight-under-par 272 last year.

Some 400 yards have been tacked onto the original 6,600-yard layout, but par remains at 35-35-70.

SNEAD'S COMPETITION here will probably be stiffer than at any time since the PGA championship.

And one illustrious name that wasn't even in the PGA — that of Ben Hogan — was among those who teed off on the first of four rounds today.

But, also in the field of 113 were nine of the 10 Ryder Cup team members named here Tuesday — Art Wall Jr., Dow Finsterwald, Mike Souchak, Doug Ford, Jay Hebert, PGA champ Bob Rosburg, Cary Middlecoff, Boros and Snead.

Top Defenders, Leading Scorers To Clash Tonight

United Press International
The New York Giants, one of the National Football League's most defensive-minded teams, run into the high-scoring Chicago Bears tonight in a nationally-televised exhibition game.

The Bears scored 106 points in their last two pre-season games while the Giants have not permitted a touchdown in their last two exhibitions.

Tonight's contest will be televised by CBS, starting at 11:15 p.m. (e.d.t.).

Coach Red Hickey of San Francisco Thursday drilled his team in defensive tactics for Saturday night's game against the Rams at Los Angeles. The Forty-Niner coach concentrated particularly on stopping the Rams' Jon Arnett, who specializes in punt returns.

MERCER COPS TRIPLE
SALEM, N. H. (UPI) — Jockey Norman Mercier climaxed a triple at Rockingham Park Thursday in the $5,000 feature. Mercier's other winners were Snips Spirit in the first race and Mike Hudson Jr. in the sixth.
